

Cold Safety

Cold is dangerous for people with disabilities.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Cold makes people feel confused, tired, and in pain.

People should stay in warm places.

They should wear layers of clothing.

They should wear hats, gloves, and waterproof shoes.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

People can ask for help in cold temperatures.

People should check on neighbors and friends too.

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Flood Safety

A weather report may show rain is coming.

Rain can bring floods.

Flood

water may rise

slowly or or quickly.

Any area can have floods.

Floods are dangerous.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Floods are emergencies !

Being prepared for a flood is important.

Know what to do:

- before a flood
- during a flood
- and after a flood.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Before a flood:

- make a plan,
- know your risk,
- make a communication plan,
- charge devices,
- sign up for notifications,
- know a safe place,
- and ask for help.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

During a flood:

- stay calm,
- listen to emergency alerts,
- obey evacuation orders,
- go to higher ground,
- take devices,
- and do not walk through floods.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

After a flood:

- listen to authorities,
- do not walk through floods,
- wait for an all clear announcement,
- and contact your family.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Floods are dangerous.

Follow your plan.

Stay calm.

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Heat Safety

Summer temperatures are hot.

Spring and fall temperatures can be hot too.

Heat is dangerous for people with disabilities.

Heat is dangerous for all

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Heat can make people feel dizzy and sick.

=

+

To be safe:

stay in cool places,

wear light, loose clothes, and drink water.

People should check on neighbors and friends too.

+

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Lightning Safety

Thunderstorms have lightning and thunder.

Thunder is scary, but lightning is dangerous.

Outdoors is not safe during a thunderstorm.

When thunder roars, go indoors.

Thunder means lightning is near.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Stop all activities !

Move away from:

- fields

- trees

- hills

- metal fences

- and poles.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Find a safe place indoors.

Wait 30 minutes indoors after the thunderstorm ends.

30

END

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Tornado Safety

Tornadoes are dangerous, spinning winds.

These winds come during thunderstorms.

Tornadoes can destroy

Tornadoes can hurt people too.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Tornadoes can be scary.

Meteorologists watch for bad weather, like tornadoes.

They help people be safe.

Meteorologists send tornado watches.

They send tornado warnings too.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

You can get watches and warnings on media.

A tornado watch means you should watch for bad weather.

You have some time to prepare.

A tornado warning means a tornado is near !

You should go to a safe place.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

You can be ready for a tornado.

Choose a safe place in your home.

Know your community warnings.

Watch your local media.

Know when a tornado could be in your area.

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

Wildfire Safety

Wildfires are dangerous!

They can burn

Wildfires can be hard to stop.

Authorities may tell people to leave the area.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

To stay safe, you can:

- Pack emergency supplies

- Make an action plan

- Listen to local reports

- Obey authorities

Return only when authorities say it is okay.

Go to weather.gov/safety for more information.

weather.gov/safety

This content was created in collaboration with the National Weather Service.

