HIDDEN GEMS

Class News

Class News saves teachers time in creating an email or print newsletter to keep families in the loop about school activities. Class News also gives students opportunities to get involved in creating the newsletter by interviewing their classmates and reporting on school events and weather.

Newsletter prompts: What is the weather today?, What special activities are happening at school today?, What news article did you read today?

Extra Materials

Extra materials in News2you save teachers time and connect students to the outside world with real-life experiences. These materials include blank templates for book/movie/restaurant reviews, holiday songs communication strips, and more.

Examples of activities: review a restaurant, review a movie, learn holiday songs in 3 different differentiated texts

Today's Weather

Today's Weather gets students involved in a fun, educational experience that allows them to practice dressing culturally relevant characters for the weather in your area. Teachers save time and money using the materials in Today's Weather, and students build confidence in life skills.

Weather prompts: What outerwear should be worn to be prepared for the weather outside?, What footwear should be worn to be prepared for the weather outside?

Breaking News Articles

Real-world articles in 2 differentiated reading levels give students topics to discuss with their peers, providing them with a sense of belonging. These articles save teachers preparation time, and are added weekly in 3 categories—world, sports, and entertainment news.

Example topics: Robot Guide Dog, Winter X Games, Emmy Awards Show

Holidays

Over 50 holidays are covered in News2you at two differentiated reading levels to connect students to the real world. Comprehension questions are included, too.

Examples of holidays included: Ramadan, Autism Acceptance Month, Labor Day

Joey's Locker

Skill-building games based on the weekly News2you article theme provide students with gamified independent practice. Teachers reach more students and connect to more learning styles through technology.

Examples of games: Memory, Word Search, Tic-Tac-Toe, Flight School, Build a Word

Current Issues— Additional Information

Teachers have the autonomy to use provided lesson plans, or plan on their own. Current issues feature suggested weekly plans for various grade bands, blank lesson plans, progress monitoring sheets, and standards-alignment documents. Teachers can address standards with News2you activities and newspapers to meet compliance.

Examples of Current Issues: Black History Month, Super Bowl, Washed Ashore Exhibit
