

Captivating Reads. LIVELY DISCUSSION.

NEW

How excited would your unique learners be to join their general education peers in reading world-renowned literary works? With Classics, middle and high school students get equitable access to 12 novels and plays that fire up their imaginations! Each work includes adapted-text and symbol-supported versions, and leveled activities build understanding and independence.

Beloved Characters and New Worlds AWAIT EVERY READER

Authentic, sustained reading helps students improve their vocabulary and strengthen their command of the language. Reading the classics invites students to share the same stories and meet the same characters that have captivated generations!

STRENGTHEN COMPREHENSION

Students learn to identify story elements and meaning through interactive vocabulary activities, end-of-chapter questions, and end-of-book activities differentiated to four levels.

COVER STANDARDS AND SUPPORT GOALS

Meet extended and general education standards with a variety of engaging literature, and monitor progress toward IEP goals with performance data that's automatically collected.

CREATE A COMMUNITY OF READERS

Foster meaningful growth with age-appropriate materials that challenge students and lead to fulfilling discussions with peers and teachers.

